

1) TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF USE

The logos and graphic elements reproduced on this website are the property of Centro Commerciale Euroma2 s.c.a.r.l..

Unauthorized changes, copying, reproduction, distribution, transmission or disclosure of the contents of this website is prohibited. In particular, it is prohibited to copy the computer programs (software) used for functioning of the website, create programs similar to them, identify and/or use the source code of said programs.

The hypertext links present on this website may direct visitors' search to pages present on other websites. In this case, Centro Commerciale Euroma2 s.c.a.r.l. may not be held liable for the contents of said websites and use which third parties may make of them or for any damages caused by or originating from access to said websites, interconnection with them or use of their contents.

Any personal information sent to Centro Commerciale Euroma2 s.c.a.r.l. shall be processed in compliance with privacy laws. Any non-personal information communicated to Centro Commerciale Euroma2 s.c.a.r.l. through this website (including suggestions, ideas, designs, projects, etc.) shall give it the exclusive, unlimited and irrevocable right to use, reproduce, show, execute, modify, transmit and distribute said non-personal information. Communication of said information shall automatically lead to its transfer, free of charge, exclusively and with the widest rights and powers, to Centro Commerciale Euroma2 s.c.a.r.l..

The optional, express and voluntary sending of the user's e-mail address to the addresses indicated on this website in order to obtain answers to their requests shall lead to subsequent acquisition of the sender's address and also any other personal data included in the communication.

Italian law is applicable to this website.

2) INFORMATION ON PRIVACY PURSUANT TO ART.13 OF LEGISLATIVE DECREE 196/2003

Centro Commerciale Euroma2 s.c.a.r.l. (hereinafter the "Consortium") protects its users' privacy and guarantees that personal data is processed in compliance with Legislative Decree 196/03 (the "Privacy law").

This page therefore provides a description of the methods used to manage the website with regard to processing of the personal data of users who interact with Centro Commerciale Euroma2 s.c.a.r.l. web services, accessible via the Internet from the address: <http://www.euroma2.it/>, corresponding with the first page of the official website of Centro Commerciale Euroma2 s.c.a.r.l..

Centro Commerciale Euroma2 s.c.a.r.l. provides the following information as the Data Processor and this information therefore concerns exclusively the processing performed by the company via the website : <http://www.euroma2.it/> and not the processing performed by other websites which the user has visited through the links present on the website itself (see "terms and conditions of use").

Purposes of data collection

The data collected through this website is processed for purposes connected with and instrumental to correct management and supply of the web services activated on specific request of the users (e.g. requests for information) and also to satisfy legal obligations or requirements of the judicial authorities or anyone who is authorised for this under current laws and secondary regulations.

Users' data may also be processed for promotional and commercial purposes and for sending information, etc. These purposes will be fulfilled in compliance with the law and Centro Commerciale Euroma2 s.c.a.r.l. shall therefore ask users to provide specific consent when this is necessary for lawful processing of data.

A user wishing to receive a service or to request information must provide certain, essential information to allow the Consortium to satisfy said requests.

PROCESSING METHODS

Personal data is processed using automated instruments and for the time strictly necessary to achieve the purposes for which it has been collected.

With the exception of what is specified for browsing data in the paragraph "Data Types" below, a user intending to use the on-line services supplied by the Consortium is required to provide the personal data requested on the specific forms. Users provide said information on a voluntary basis.

Providing the data is optional when it is not required to satisfy legal or contractual requirements.

However, failure to provide the data could make it impossible, in certain cases, to fulfil the user's request, e.g. request for information, etc.

Specific summary information will be progressively provided or displayed on the pages of the website, specifying the processing purposes and methods for specific services available on request, such as in the case of information or marketing.

Data processing is performed both by Consortium employees, appointed as data processors, and by outside companies, appointed as data managers if necessary, to whom any processing operations may be assigned, including maintenance of electronic equipment.

Appropriate security measures are adopted to prevent loss and illegal or improper use of the data and unauthorised access to it.

DATA COMMUNICATION AND DISCLOSURE

Users' data may also be communicated to the following categories, if this is necessary for correct supply of the product or service requested by the user: (i) people, companies, associations or professional firms which supply assistance and consultancy services to our company; (ii) companies, agencies and associations which supply services connected with and instrumental to the above purposes (e.g. courier services delivering brochures, etc.).

The data collected may be transmitted to company which operate with their own shop at the same shopping centre or to our partners with which we have business relations, to guarantee a more efficient response to our user's requests.

You can obtain a list of parties to which users' data is or may be communicated from the company by sending a specific request to the following address: info@euroma2.it.

TYPES OF DATA PROCESSED

Browsing data

The computer systems and software procedures used to operate this website acquire certain types of data on the user during normal activities, transmission of which is implicit in use of Internet communication protocols (the so-called log files).

This information is not collected to be associated with the parties identified, but, due to its nature, could allow identification of the user, through processing and association with data held by third parties.

This category of data includes IP addresses or domain names of users' computers connected to the website URI (Uniform Resource Identifier) addresses of the resources required, the time of the request, the method used to submit the request to the server, the size of the file obtained in response, the digital code indicating the status of the server's response (successful, error, etc.) and other parameters relating to the operating system and the user's computer environment.

This data is used for the sole purpose of obtaining anonymous statistical information on use of the website and to check its correct functioning. The data may be used to check for liability in the case of possible computer crimes damaging the website and may be exhibited to the judicial authorities, if they submit a specific request.

Cookies

No personal data of users is deliberately acquired by the website.

Cookies are not used to transmit personal information and user tracking and identification systems are not used.

Use of the so-called cookies is strictly limited to transmission of session identification data (formed of random numbers generated by the server) needed to allow secure and efficient browsing of the website and used for statistical purposes to detect the number of monthly visitors.

You can eliminate cookies using the specific functions of your browser.

USERS' RIGHTS

Users may submit a written request to the Data Processor, at info@euroma2.it, at any moment, in order to exercise the rights granted by art. 7 of legislative decree no. 196/2003, including the right to obtain confirmation of whether or not their data exists, its contents and origin and whether it is accurate and also to ask for the data to be supplemented or revised, corrected, deleted or converted into anonymous form, or blocked if it has been processed illegally, and also oppose, for justified reasons, processing of said data or its use for purposes of commercial, advertising or marketing information.
